KANSAS, TEXAS, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Virginia, Florida, South Carolina and North Carolina, "the persons taking the oath of allegiance to the United States Government, that shall be republican, and in nowise countenancing said oath, such Government shall be deemed to be the Government of the State, and be entitled to the benefits of the Constitutional provision which declares that the United States shall guarantee to every State in the Union a republican form of Government."

From our Frankfort Correspondent.

FRANKFORT, Dec. 25th, 1865.

CHRISTMAS DAY.

Editor's Democrat: The return of peace to the country has brought with it an old-fashioned celebration of Christmas—at least it has been the case in this city. East-meets, apple-pie, and sundry other spiritual influences are invoked on the 25th, which resulted in a decided "flow of soul" and in a few instances of "claret." Generally, however, there was perfect good humor, and "Auld Lang Syne" prevailed.

The little folks have had emphatic joyous times. Festivals, Christmas trees or entertainments, were given them at all the Sabbath schools in the city save one (the M. E.), which will follow "New Years." Santa Claus paid out his gifts with a most magnificent hand; private parties have been given them every evening; and, to fill the measure of their capacity for enjoyment to the brim, last evening the Assembly Ball Club gave them grand Louisiana Items.

The Clinton (East Feliciana) Democrat, of the 9th, says:

"Business during the past week has not been very brisk; cotton comes in slowly. Slave trading was duly observed—business houses closed and everything orderly. Improvements are going on, oil buildings being repaired, new houses erected in the course of erection. We hear of the chance of lots in the 'burnt district' on stores, and more contemplation.

The Baton Rouge Advocate, of the 15th, has the following:

"Whilst Sheriff Coninard, assisted by detectives Loew-Wood and Rolla, was confined to the prison in New Orleans, who were rounded by a large crowd of infuriated negroes, and insulted and threatened by the police, our citizens being rendered bare the brunt, and with energy and coolness accomplished what at one time threatened to be a most dangerous attempt."

The Baton Rouge Gazette learns that Sheriff Coninard, who was an efficient officer, was severely beaten by negroes on Saturday night, the 6th inst., under very peculiar circumstances. He was standing near the entrance to his residence in West Baton Rouge, and, as supposed, was seized by a epileptic fit. His attendants, however, failed to notice him, and with energy and coolness producing such injury to himself from bursting as to result in his death a few hours afterwards.

The Alexandria Democrat of the 13th, says:

"Ex-Governor Thomas O. Moore arrived in this parish on Tuesday last, and was welcomed by a host of devoted friends. The Governor is in the enjoyment of excellent health, and appears to be in the prime of life. He bears up under his troubles with that indifference and fortitude which he has ever been distinguished for. After spending a few days with his son, Dr. Robert Moore, he left for Texas on a visit to his family."

E. S. Craig, from the Twelfth, on Monday, joins us from the MISSOURI.

Ben S. Bowd, Councilman from the Second ward, being present, the office was administered to him. J. C. McMillan, a Notary Public, who took his place.

Mr. McMillan presented a resolution allowing M. Wilson $15 for repairing the damage done to the front of the postoffice, which was rejected.

Mr. McGill presented a resolution allowing Al. Bourier $25 for the boxes damaged by the fire, which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Col. Crawford, commanding the militia of the parish of St. Mary, has issued the following orders:

"I commanding officers of companies will make a weekly detail of one sergeant, one corporal and six privates, from the respective companies, to set apart patrol to do service in the neighborhood of the postoffice."

II. They will then do the duty so far as may be required at least three times a week, and even nightly if necessary.

Pardon the digression. We were led into this parenthesis by the contemplation of the source of revenue which we witnessed this week. We shall not attempt to print the name at the hop last evening, but we will stand still long enough in this place to let anybody, and we don't think any one, dodge around fast enough to catch them. Let us see how well they can guess whether power and position go together. We don't think it worth while to watch the Journal. Few care whether it leads and what it says; for it is most likely to be teaching just the opposite and running in the opposite direction at the next change of the moon. Let the Journal shriek and squall. It has been its vocation for, lo, these many years. One well whipt has a right to scold; he's hurt."

NAINE undressed, is adored the most."

We are used to free negroes here in Kentucky. They are treated as free. They prefer to submit their contracts and their conduct to the courts of law, should they be any dispute. Hiring freedmen is like hiring slaves of a master where the master is not responsible to the law for his engagements. Besides, it appears to us that this sort of supervision ill accords with the theory that the negro is really a freeman, when he has a sort of legal guard set over him to direct and take care of him.
